ANOTHER STRANGE REPORT.

The Atlantic, Mississippi and Ohio Railroad Company was organized 12th November, 1870. The president and directors assumed the administration of its affairs, so far as the accounts and returns are involved," on the 1st of April, 1871. Their FIRST ANNUAL REPORT to the stockholders; 'however, [was] made to embrace the operations and affairs of the line from October 1, 1870, that it [might] serve not only as A BASIS OF COMPARISON FOR FUTURE REPORTS, but also cover that interregnum," &c., &c. The Second Annual Report, dated December 2, 1872, contains the following:

"During the past year the former floating debt of $2,307,292.57, which, it is proper to remark, had been in great part incurred on account of the restoration of the property in anticipation of this loan, has been liquidated: $42,900 of Norfolk and Petersburg bonds retired; $1,158,738.54 expended in the restoration and improvement of the property; leaving yet on hand, as will be seen, at the close of the fiscal year, $1,595,541.06? [a misprint for $1,575,541.06]; and Treasurer Cuthbert's report accompanying the above, in Table No. 1, exhibits said residue among the assets by the following entry: "X. SPECIAL DEPOSITS WITH BANKS, BANK-

ERS, ETC., $1,575,541.06." The statement aforesaid is either unintelligible or incredible, or both. If the words the primary question was all the talk in poordinary sense and common acceptation, universal satisfaction. then the entry is unintelligible. Magruder, chairman, in 1874, that said bonds were sold for the gross sum of $3,944,352.82 in negotiating the $15,000,000 loan" [not including the $45,000 of bonds paid to the trustees for fees usual in such cases], two sources-to wit., current revenue and lived. the sale of bonds. But for the present purpose this is immaterial, inasmuch as the President's report, on page 8, furnishes proof that the sum of $1,158,738.54 reported as expended for FURTHER CONSTRUCTION OR IM-PROVEMENT is the balance, "after having made. placed to the credit of this account the proceeds arising from the sale of old and wornout rails." It is also apparent that the cash-account should be charged with $211,- dresses were made by Messrs. Halsey, Wag-915.73, the difference between $622,207.38 of bills payable and $410,291.65 of bills receivable. These two items are spoken the President's report as follows: "The floating debt reported as outstanding, as well as the assets, denominated bills receivable on open account, are the legitimate result of current business transactions, and are not in the nature of outstanding liabilities or assets in the usual acceptation of those terms." And in the report of the treasurer and Auditor to the Board of Public Works said items are spoken of as follows: "The floating debt reported is simply the result of current business transactions with connecting lines, &c., and is settled monthly, when balances are made up, together with notes and acceptances given for the purchase of supplies, which are paid at maturity." Therefore the $211,915.73 is the excess of the moneys collected by the Atlantic, Mississippi and Ohio Railroad Company for others over the amounts collected by others for it. EXPENDITURES.

The reports and accounts indicate the following expenditures of money: For the ac- agent has just decamped from Richmond count of "FURTHER CONSTRUCTION OF IM-PROVEMENT" the sum of $1,158,738.54 after taking off the sales of old iron, &c. $1,095.59; "storehouse supplies" by $35,-342.10; "Virginia consolidated six per cent. bonds" by $2,000; and "second preferred Southside bonds" by $37,812.87. The company also sustained and paid during the year an actual loss of $530,801.56, and still had on the 30th September, 1872, in "banks, trea-surer's, and cashier's hands," the sum of ber, 1872, expended $331,959.03 more money than its treasury received. And that even then it had left the sum of $1,575,-541.06 as "SPECIAL DEPOSITS WITH BANKS, BANKERS, &c." Verily, Virginians, a miracle has been wrought among you; and your eyes have been blinded that you could not see, and would not understand.

An impartial, diligent, and faithful RE-CEIVER, reinforced by the power and guided by the wisdom of a court, will open a flood light upon these obscure transactions. That "special deposit" entry of more than a million and a half of dollars must come out of that treasurer's account. Then the account will lose its balance and topple and break in pieces. BROUGHT INTO THE COURTS AGAIN. -Two or numbers, who is ever ready for work in the SUIT FOR A TRADE-MARK-AN OLD CASE three years ago William T. Blackwell & Co., of Durham, N. C., instituted suit in one of the courts of that State against W. A. Wright, then of Lynchburg, to recover damages for alleged violation of their trademark rights, in which they obtained judgment for large damages, and an injunction to restrain Wright from using a trade-mark which he claimed he had originated. From this judgment Wright appealed to the Supreme Court of North Carolina, which, at its June term, 1875, decided the case out and out for him. Last winter Blackwell & Co. petitioned the Supreme Court to rehear and reverse its former decision on the ground that the court had erroneously assumed that Wright was operating his trade-mark at Durham, N. C., when in fact he was operating in Richmond. Upon a rehearing the court affirmed its former decision, and held that it was immaterial Burroughs, a young gentleman of this city, and at one time a pupil of Mr. Fisher. Decided talent is displayed in reproducing the work, the lights and shadows of the face and hair being admirably handled. As this is Mr. Burrough's first picture before the public we have reason to look for something excellent from his studio.
